CODE OF CONDUCT

People play Rugby because they have fun, make new friends and learn new skills that challenge themselves. The game is for the players. Everyone attending any Rugby event is expected to set a good example of sportsmanship and show respect for all involved in the game including coaches, players, opponents, opposing fans, and referees. We all make mistakes including the officials, coaches, and players. Everyone must refrain from questioning, insulting, and screaming or you may be asked to leave the game and incur possible suspension as a result of the actions.
